EXHIBITION CENTER GUIDELINES

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Exhibition Center is to provide Green Valley Recreation, Inc. members' space to exhibit their original artwork (both two and three-dimensional) and to allow the community to enjoy art.

EXHIBIT AREAS

At present, GVR provides member artists the privilege to display artwork in five exhibition areas at major centers: Canoa Hills, Desert Hills, East Center, Las Campanas, and West Center. These spaces are part multipurpose areas and at times may be used for other activities.

ELIGIBILITY AND ENTRY FEE

The Exhibition areas Centers are opened only to GVR members. There is no entry fee to participate.

LIABILITY/DAMAGE

Artist's exhibit at their own risk, as security is minimal. GVR employees and volunteers assume no responsibility for loss or damage to exhibits. No insurance is provided.

SALES

The use by members of GVR facilities for commercial purposes is prohibited. Sales of artwork are negotiated solely between artists and the buyers. No business cards are allowed. Prices are not to be displayed in the centers. Art must remain in the exhibit until the end of the show. If circumstances arise that the piece must be removed, that piece must be replaced with one comparable in size.

SPACE

Space is determined using a lottery drawing. Each individual or group will submit a space request form and will be notified of the results.

REGISTRATION FORM

Once you have been approved to display in one of the exhibit centers you must complete individual registration for each artist. Registration forms are available at the reception desk at the Center in which you wish to exhibit. Applicants will complete the forms, listing each piece of artwork with the information requested. To be included in the exhibit the artist will return forms, listing each piece of work with the information requested. Forms must be returned to the Center where the exhibit space is located AT LEAST TEN (10) DAYS IN ADVANCE OF YOUR SCHEDULED EXHIBITION. Artists must return the application forms requested so that GVR staff can prepare the title cards. The artist's signature signifies compliance with the guidelines provided.

RECEPTIONS

Receptions for the artists, friends and the public are entirely the responsibility of the artist. The artist pays all expenses incurred. The artist must check with the GVR Reservation Coordinator at 625-3440 ext. 7202 to make sure that the lobby area and kitchen are available. Publicity in newspapers, and GVR publications as well as in the GGvac Cultural Calendar is the responsibility of the artist.

DISPLAY CRITERIA

Each artist is responsible for each of the following:

- Each art group is responsible for organizing and hanging their own exhibit. Please list the names of those who will hang the pieces.
- Artwork must be original and by a GVR member.
- Artwork must be properly framed in a professional manner for exhibition. Use standard picture wire which, when drawn taut, is two inches from the top of frame (no quick-frames, paste-on or saw-tooth hangers.)
- Plexiglas, instead of glass, must be used on any works over 36 inches in any direction.
- An artist's statement (no bigger than 8 ½ x 11 inches) is permitted for individual exhibitors. Exhibiting groups are allowed a statement reflecting their group as a whole.
- Place name of artist, telephone number and title of work on the back of each entry before bringing in to the Exhibition Center.

THE VOLUNTEER EXHIBITION COMMITTEE RESERVES THE RIGHT TO:

- Limit the number of entries per individual.
- Refuse entries not conforming to display criteria, improperly framed, soiled, too fragile for safe display, or inconsistent display character.
- Decide placement of artwork in the Exhibit.
